

First Salem M.B.C.

Elder Nicole R.S. Coleman is the daughter of Pastor George and Lady Barbara Stapleton of Flint, Michigan. She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior and committed to serving Him at an early age. Recognizing her earthly assignment in the arena of education, she pursued and obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in Secondary Education and a Master of Arts degree in Educational Leadership from Western Michigan University. She also holds a Master of Arts degree in Biblical Studies from Grand Rapids Theological Seminary of Cornerstone University in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Elder Nicole is a licensed and ordained minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Nicole has a heart for education, both secular and spiritual. Currently, she serves as the Director of Christian Education and Women's Ministry Coordinator of the First Salem Missionary Baptist Church. She has a special passion for helping men and women identify, acknowledge, cultivate and fully operate in the gifts and callings that God has placed within them, with humility and integrity, as an act of worship and appreciation to God. Nicole is the loving wife of Elder Leon Coleman, III and the mother of two beautiful daughters, Layla and Nia Coleman. Overall, the objective of Nicole's life is simply stated: I just want to live a life that is pleasing to the Lord. At the end of the day, it's about hearing him say, "Well done."

*Elder Nicole
R.S. Coleman*